At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Akoranga logo and menu items: HOME, OUR COMPANY, TUTORS, COURSES, JOIN US, SHOP, CONTACT, and a LOGIN button. The main header features the tutor's name, "Poppy Macfarlane", her qualifications "BEd (Tchg)", and "General English". A circular profile picture of Poppy is on the right. Below the header are tabs for "Bio", "Education", "Experience", and "Reviews". The bio text states: "I've been a classroom primary school teacher for 6 years and have tutored English and mathematics to children for 10 years. I have taught and tutored in New Zealand, Australia, Singapore and the United Kingdom. During this time I have helped students prepare and attain high examination results, which is hugely important when applying for secondary school entrance placements. My students have been offered multiple school places when their results come in leaving them with the benefit to choose which secondary school best suits their needs. I currently live in London, where I have been based for the last 8 years." Below the bio are two columns: "English Language (All Ages)" with a description of the language and a "Book Classes" button, and "Booking Instructions" with details on time zones and booking policies. At the bottom of the profile section is a "Join Our Team Of Tutors" section with a "JOIN TODAY" button. The footer contains contact information, social media links, and payment logos for VISA, Mastercard, American Express, Discover, Apple Pay, and PayPal.

Click “Book Classes” button & you will be taken to the tutors booking page.
